Three Transportation Commissioners Confirmed by the Florida Senate

Tallahassee – During the final week of the 2021 regular legislative session, three members of the Florida Transportation Commission who had recently been appointed or reappointed by Governor Ron DeSantis were confirmed unanimously by the Florida Senate.

Confirmed were Commissioners John Browning, Jr. of Palatka, David Genson of Naples, and Jay Trumbull, Sr. of Panama City.

John Browning, Jr.

Browning is the VP of New Projects for The Goodman Company, headquartered in West Palm Beach, Florida; founded in 1960 in Allentown, Pennsylvania. Browning currently serves as a Commissioner on the Florida Historical Commission, the Board of Directors Associated Industries of Florida, the National Federation of Independent Business Council, the Board of Directors Floridians for Better Transportation, as well as the Board of Trustees for the Rodeheaver Boys Ranch and the Board of Directors for the Putnam County Chamber of Commerce. Browning previously served as the Vice Chairman of the Florida High Speed Rail Commission. Browning is also the President of Browning Packing and Browning Consulting. Browning earned his bachelor's degree in business management from Florida State University.

David Genson

Genson is President of Development with Barron Collier Companies. Previously, he was Senior Vice President and Director of Development with Barron Collier Companies. Genson has been a member of the Association of Florida Community Developers, the Naples Area Chamber of Commerce, Leadership Collier and Leadership Florida. He earned his bachelor's degree in engineering from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee and his Master of Business Administration from Florida Gulf Coast University.

Jay Trumbull, Sr.

Trumbull is the President and Owner of Trumbull Bottled Water, Inc. He has served on the Bay County Planning Commission, Panama City Housing Authority, Bay Medical Board Foundation, Bay County Chamber of Commerce and the Bay Bank and Trust Board of Directors. Trumbull, Sr. earned his bachelor's degree in marketing from Auburn University.

FLORIDA TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION

About the Commission

The Florida Transportation Commission is an appointed body, first established in 1987 by the legislature, that provides performance, production, and fiscal oversight of the Florida Department of Transportation, and makes transportation policy recommendations to the Governor and the Legislature.

The mission of the Florida Transportation Commission is to provide leadership in meeting Florida's transportation needs through policy guidance on issues of statewide importance and by maintaining oversight and public accountability for the Department of Transportation and other statutorily specified transportation authorities.
